

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	XI
ABBREVIATIONS	XII
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	XIII
MAP OF THE BALKANS	XVI
INTRODUCTION	1
CHAPTER I: ALEXIOS AND HIS CHURCH	4
Who Was Alexios Angelos Komnenos?	4
1. Alexios' Inscription	4
2. Alexios' Family	5
Alexios' Decision to Build Nerezi and the Importance of the Region for Byzantium	5
1. The Balkan Peninsula	5
2. Macedonia	5
3. Manuel I in Macedonia	6
4. Major Towns in the Region	7
Did Alexios Reside in Skopje?	7
1. History of Skopje	7
2. Skopje as an Ecclesiastical Center	8
3. Alexios' Relatives in and around Skopje	8
4. Alexios and His Cousin Manuel I	8
Why Would Alexios Choose a Provincial Location for his Foundation?	9
1. Komnenian Aristocratic Foundations in the Provinces	9
2. Financing Nerezi	10
3. The Importance of Provincial Foundations	10
CHAPTER II: ARCHITECTURE	11
Introduction	11
Plan and Spatial Articulation	11
1. Naos: Analysis	11
1.1. Segregation of the Naos	12
1.2. Twelfth-Century Revival of Cruciform Churches	13
1.3. Naos: Summary	13
2. Sanctuary: Analysis	14
2.1. Tri-Partite Organization	14
2.2. Fusion of the Bema Bay With the Eastern Arm of the Cross	15
3. Narthex: Analysis	15
3.1. Subsidiary Chapels and the Narthex at Nerezi	16
3.2. Liturgical Furnishings and Painted Programs of Subsidiary Chapels	17
3.3. Liturgical Furnishings and Painted Programs of Narthexes	18
3.4. Could Western Chapels be considered as a Separate Entity?	19
4. Summary	19
Restorations and the Original Form of the Exterior	19
Exterior: Analysis	20
1. Composition and Technique	20
1.1. Compositional Aspects	20
1.2. Building Materials	21
1.3. Facade Articulation and Decorative Aspects	21
1.4. Constantinopolitan and Regional Features of the Exterior	21

1.5. Summary	23
2. Five-Domed Structure	23
2.1. Middle Byzantine Five-Domed Churches in Constantinople	24
2.2. Middle Byzantine Five-Domed Churches Outside of Constantinople	25
2.2.1. Russia	25
2.2.2. Armenia	25
2.2.3. Greece	25
2.2.4. Italy	26
2.1. Analysis of Middle Byzantine Five-Domed Churches	26
2.2. Symbolic Significance of Five-Domed Churches	27
Summary	28
CHAPTER III: PAINTED DECORATION	29
Introduction	29
Bema	30
1. Program: General Observations	30
2. The Communion of the Apostles	30
2.1. Symbolic and Liturgical Significance of the Scene	31
2.2. The Kiss of the Apostles	32
2.2.1. The Kiss of Sts. Peter and Paul	33
2.2.2. The Meaning of the Kiss at Nerezi	33
2.2.3. The Choice of St. Luke and St. Andrew	33
2.2.4. Political Implications	34
3. The Officiating Bishops	35
3.1. The Hetoimasia	35
3.2. Liturgical Character of the Scene	36
3.3. The Church Councils	37
3.3.1. The Major Sessions	37
3.3.2. Heretical Attacks	37
3.3.3. The Church Council of 1156/57	38
3.3.4. The Texts of Church Fathers in the Acts of the Council	38
3.3.5. The Anathemas	39
3.3.6. The Church Councils and the Painted Program of the Bema	39
Cupolas	39
1. The Procession of Angels	40
2. Images of Christ	40
2.1. Christ Priest	41
2.2. The Significance of the Images of Christ in the Domes	42
3. The Origin of the Iconography of the Domes	43
4. A Possible Reconstruction of the Program of the Central Dome	43
Eastern Chapels	44
1. The Prothesis	44
2. The Diakonikon	45
2.1. The Holy Physicians	46
3. Thematic Concerns	47
Naos: Scenes	47
1. The Annunciation	47
2. The Presentation and the Threnos	48
2.1. The Presentation: Origin, Meaning, and Visual Representations	48
2.2. The Presentation: Iconographic Innovations and Their Significance	49
2.3. The Presentation and the Church Councils	50
2.4. The Threnos: Origin, Meaning, and Visual Representations	50
2.5. The Threnos: An Icon of Sorrow	51
2.6. The Juxtaposition of the Threnos and the Presentation	52
2.7. Summary	53
3. The Transfiguration and the Deposition	53
3.1. The Deposition: Another Emotionally Charged Icon at Nerezi	53
3.2. The Transfiguration	54

3.3. The Juxtaposition of the Transfiguration and the Deposition	54
4. The Juxtaposition of the Resurrection of Lazarus and the Entry into Jerusalem	54
5. The Marian Cycle	56
6. Spatial Relations of the Scenes: Meaning and Significance	56
7. The Theme of Passion	57
7.1. Social and Cultural Trends	57
7.2. Alexios' Concerns	58
Sanctoral Cycle	58
1. Introduction	58
2. Military Saints	59
3. Martyrs	60
4. Holy Monks	60
5. Hymnographers	61
5.1. St. Theodore of Stoudios	62
5.2. St. John of Damascus and St. Kosmas the Hymnographer	62
5.3. St. Theophanes Graptos	64
5.4. St. Joseph of Sicily	65
5.5. The Importance of Hymnographers	65
6. St. Panteleimon	66
7. Grouping of Saints	66
Narthex	66
1. Introduction	66
2. The Deesis	67
3. The Cycle of St. Panteleimon	68
3.1. The Life of St. Panteleimon	68
3.2. The Scenes: East Wall	68
3.3. The Scenes: South Wall	69
3.4. The Scenes: North Wall	69
3.5. Hagiographic Cycles of St. Panteleimon	70
3.6. Passion and Intercession	70
Western Chapels	71
1. Introduction	71
2. North-West Chapel	71
2.1. Five Martyrs of Armenia	71
2.2. St. Menas, St. Viktor, St. Vikentios	72
2.3. St. Tryphon, St. Blasios, St. Mamas	73
3. Summary	73
Painted Cycle: Concluding Remarks	73
1. Alexios	73
2. Church Councils	74
3. Legacy	74
CHAPTER IV: ARTISTS AND THEIR LEGACY	76
Style and Iconography	76
Composition	77
1. Compositional Integration of the Program as a Whole	77
2. Compositional Integration of Individual Scenes	77
3. Sources	78
Figures	78
1. Proportions	78
2. Linearism	79
3. Color and Line	79
4. Faces	79
The Origins of Nerezi's Style	80
Linearism: Constantinopolitan or Provincial?	81
Artists, Attribution	81
Nerezi and Twelfth-Century Style	82
1. The Church of the Transfiguration, Chortiatis	83

2. The Church of Hosios David, Thessaloniki	83
3. Chortiatis, Hosios David, and Nerezi	84
Summary	84
CHAPTER V: SCULPTURE	86
Introduction	86
Description	87
Analysis: Technique, Iconography, Style	88
1. Constantinople as a Source	88
2. The Provinces and Neighboring Countries as a Source	88
3. Macedonia as a Source	89
The Original Form of the Iconostasis	90
1. The Proskynetaria Icons	91
2. The Icons Above the Architrave	92
3. Intercolumnar Icons	92
3.1. Controversy About Their Existence	92
3.2. Textual Evidence	93
3.3. Archaeological Evidence	93
Summary	93
CHAPTER VI: EPILOGUE. NEREZI AFTER ALEXIOS	95
History	95
1. Nerezi as a Metoch of the Monastery of St. George-Gorgos	95
1.1. The Monastery of St. George-Gorgos before 1376/77	95
1.2. The Monastery of St. George-Gorgos as a Metoch of Chilandar	96
2. Nerezi After the Turkish Conquest of Skopje	96
Post-Byzantine Paintings	97
1. Introduction	97
2. Bema	97
3. Central Cupola	98
4. Naos	98
5. Analysis of the Sixteenth-Century Cycle	98
6. Nineteenth-Century Paintings	99
7. Nerezi Today	99
CONCLUSION	100
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	102
INDEX	110
FIGURES	119
PLATES	189