

Contents

Foreword	13
Translator's Notes	15
Introduction	17
A. GENERAL ISSUES	25
Thoughts on singing with children.....	25
On the cultivation of children's voices.....	26
On learning songs	26
On questions of discipline in (singing) lessons.....	27
On the promotion of extra-musical capacities	27
On lesson structure	28
On play – learning through play	29
Parental contact	31
Taster lesson.....	31
Parent evenings	32
Parent letters.....	32
Sessions for observing and joining in.....	32
Open singing.....	33
Children's Choir appearance at a concert.....	34
Year's end festival concert.....	34
B. COLLECTION OF EXAMPLES	35
I. Breathing Games.....	35
1. Objects for stimulating breathing and gentle singing	37
Bubble-blowing	37
Drinking straws	40
Down feathers – Japanese paper balls – balloons	43
2. The body and breathing	46
Tree Meditation.....	46
Breathing and making sounds in a supine position	48
Blossoming sounds (supine position 1)	48
Letting it happen (supine position 2).....	49
Back to back	50
Circling at the joints	52
Letting it fall	53
Breathing in the ribs	55

3. Gestures for accompanying breathing	56
Painting patterns	56
Lighthouse	56
Hand statues	57
4. Structured breath sounds	58
Echo-games with rhythmically arranged, whispered consonants	58
Wallpaper patterns	59
Vowels as creators of mood	61
II. Speech games	63
1. Articulation and speech exercises	64
How sounds arise – games with our speech tools	64
Typewriter game	66
Playing with syllable cards	67
“Tschikomola Pirrisu” – Short Scenes in Nonsense Language	69
Children make up A-E-I-O-U Rhymes	70
2. Creating language	72
Working out and game varieties	72
New Magic Spells	82
Photo Gallery of the „Schnurpsenchor“	89
III. Rhythmic Games	105
1. Clapping games	107
Keeping the meter	107
Echo-clapping	108
Echo clapping turn for turn	109
Question – Answer clapping	109
Clapping games in pairs	110
Clapping (drumming) in locomotion	114
2. Rhythms in free meter	115
3. Co-ordination and independence exercises	115
4. Co-ordination of two rhythms	117
5. Body percussion	119
6. Rhythmic pieces	121
IV. Vocal games	136
1. Discovering pitched sounds – distinguishing pitched sounds	138
Sing what you see (1)	138
Sing what you see (2)	139
Singing “Chinese Whispers”	139
Singing through eye contact	140
2. Finding the pitch	141
Traveling notes	141
Taking over pitched sounds (1)	141
Taking over a pitched sound (2)	142

Throwing notes to one another.....	142
Traveling in an elevator (glissandi 1).....	143
Pitched weighing scales (glissandi 2).....	144
Sound moving on a path (glissandi 3).....	144
Throwing the voice up/down (glissandi 4).....	145
3. Singing in locomotion: cluster sounds (1).....	146
Sounds carried in space.....	147
Sounds carried in a circle.....	148
Leading and following a sound, in pairs next to one another.....	148
Leading and following a sound, in pairs opposite one another.....	149
Magnet game.....	150
One sound – many sounds.....	151
4. Cluster sounds (2).....	151
Peeling bells – singing intervals.....	151
Walking through the city of bells.....	152
Changing sounds.....	153
“Cluster Cathedral” (crescendo – decrescendo).....	153
5. “A Walk in the Fall” – a story for exercising children’s voices.....	154
V. Aids to acquiring a sense of pitch and intonation.....	157
1. Showing pitch levels.....	158
2. Note ladder.....	160
3. Five-note-hand.....	161
4. Relative Solmization.....	163
Suggestions for introducing Relative Solmization.....	166
Introductory steps.....	168
Ten different Solmization exercises.....	169
Solmization in musical education for early years.....	170
VI. Inventing Melodies.....	173
1. Stories in song.....	175
2. Question – Answer.....	177
3. Setting a verse to music (1).....	178
4. Setting a verse to music (2).....	179
5. Inventing melodies over layered ostinati.....	181
6. Echo singing with mirror image.....	183
7. We build a melody together.....	184
8. Children’s texts – children’s melodies.....	185
VII. Listening Games.....	188
1. Directional hearing.....	189
2. Being led by noises and sounds (selective listening 1).....	189
3. Sound gifts.....	190
4. Paths of sound.....	191
5. “Cold!” – “Warmer!” – “Hot!”.....	191

6. Word puzzle (selective listening 2)	191
7. Sound memory (selective listening 3)	192
8. "Where is the intruder sitting?" (selective listening 4)	193
VIII. Movement Games	194
1. Walking exercises.....	196
Distribution and negotiation of space.....	197
Reaction training.....	198
2. Experiencing the circle formation	200
Larger and smaller circles.....	201
On the circle orbit.....	202
Changing positions.....	202
Wandering circles	203
3. Social and convivial movement games	203
"Who is missing?"	203
The condition of the ground	204
Hook-an-arm catcher	206
"Are you Goofy?"	206
Being rocked	207
Charades – a mime game	207
IX. Dancing that sings – Singing that dances	209
C. LESSON MODELS	227
Model 1	229
Making contact – warming up bodies and voices	229
Introducing the text	230
Listening to the language.....	232
"Carpet of sound".....	232
Introducing the melody	233
Consolidating the melody – hearing and shaping phrases.....	234
Canon exercises (valid for all canon singing!).....	235
Further exercises to promote security in canon singing.....	236
Model 2	237
Locomotion – reaction training – communication	238
Using drapery weight chains for laying down shapes and for breathing exercises	239
Introducing a melody while laying a picture.....	240
Model 3	244
Part 1: Staccato/legato in movement and speech, in singing and drawing	244
Qualities of staccato in body part movement/in spoken syllables	244
Qualities of legato in movement and voice	245

Reflection – discussion	245
Drawing.....	246
Staccato songs and legato songs: remembering, singing, classifying – Voice production exercises in contrasts	246
Part 2: Staccato/legato with a ping-pong ball	247
Introducing and creating a speech piece with voice, movement and mime	247
Playing with a colored ping-pong ball
Articulation exercises in staccato.....	247
Playing with a monotone ping-pong ball: Empowering breathing with legato notes	248
Two balls – two-part singing	248
Introducing the verse text (Parts A and B) – articulation exercises	249
Contrasts in speech transferred to movement contrasts	249
Developing the setting of a verse in speech, movement and dramatic action	250
Group A (“Karacho ...”): Quarrel.....	250
Group B (“Karim sim ...”): Appeasement.....	251
 Model 4	 252
 Special Model: Practicing Songs	 256
Practicing the melody.....	257
Practicing the text.....	260
Practicing the refrain	261
 D. A TREASURE CHEST OF SONGS	 263
Children need songs!	263
 E. EPILOGUE	 301
THANK YOU	305
 F. INDEX OF SONGS, SPEECH PIECES AND DANCED SONGS	 307
Discography – Children’s and easy folk dances (the accompanying booklets with dance descriptions will all be in German).....	308
Glossary.....	308
Definitions.....	308
Pronunciation guides	310