

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Foreword. Living with Death by Timothy J. Clark .....  | VII |
| Introduction. Roman Decorated Sarcophagi as a Source for the Cultural Historian by Christopher H. Hallett .....                        | 1   |
| Putting the Deceased in the Picture: ›Pictorial Devices‹ as Visual Cues by Paul Zanker .....   | 9   |
| Why Mythology? by Alan Cameron .....   | 27  |
| The Violence of Emotions: Death, Myths, and Empathy in Rome (and Etruria) by Francesco de Angelis .....                                | 43  |
| Mythologizing Death: Silvae and Sarcophagi by Kathleen M. Coleman .....   | 57  |
| Vivi fecerunt. Roman Sarcophagi for and by the Living by Ruth Bielfeldt .....  | 65  |
| Isolating the Deceased in the Picture: Tools and Technique on Mythological Sarcophagi by Mont Allen .....                              | 97  |
| Standardization and Transformation. Some Observations on the Sarcophagus Trade and Sarcophagus Production by Michael Koortbojian ..... | 125 |
| Hidden Splendour: The Display Context of Metropolitan Sarcophagi by Barbara E. Borg .....  | 145 |
| Mythology and Sarcophagi at Aphrodisias and Rome by R. R. R. Smith .....   | 161 |
| Roundtable Discussion by Christopher H. Hallett .....  | 177 |